When the U.S. troop surge was announced in late 2009, women in Afghanistan knew that the ground was being laid for peace talks with the Taliban. Peace Unveiled follows three women who immediately began to organise to make sure that women's rights didn't get traded away in the deal. As with other films in the Women, War and Peace series, Peace Unveiled explores and exposes the changing and powerful roles of women in peace-building, and in conflict. Come along and see and hear about the momentous courage and stories of these inspiring women.

After the screening, a panel chaired by Dr Natalia Szablewska (SCU), human rights and refugee expert, will discuss issues raised in the film. Panel members:

- Kay Danes OAM: Humanitarian worker and SCU PhD researcher. Kay was awarded Medal of the Order of Australia for service to social justice and human rights worldwide

- Katrina Elliot: Humanitarian worker working with NGOs and United Nations' agencies, and recently with the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) in Afghanistan
- David Freeman: Chief Legal Officer – Lieutenant Colonel Ret'd Australian Army, who served in Iraq, Afghanistan and East Timor. He is a recipient of an Australian Red Cross Service Award
- Dr Melanie O'Brien: Postdoctoral Research Fellow at the University of Queensland and formerly at the Office of the Prosecutor at the International Criminal Court (ICC).
